

American Medical Technologists Announces 2026-2027 Board of Directors

For immediate release: October 2026

ROSEMONT, IL—American Medical Technologists (AMT), a national certification agency and leading professional organization dedicated to advancing allied health professionals, is pleased to introduce the 2026-2027 Executive Board Members and Board of Directors.

The Executive Committee Members will be instrumental in guiding AMT's strategic direction and advancing the mission:

President, Michael Waide, EdD, MLS (AMT), CMLA (AMT), RPT (AMT), AHI (AMT)

Vice President, Francine Oran, RMA (AMT), RPT (AMT), AHI (AMT)

Secretary, Annette Cook, MLS (AMT)

Treasurer, Sanda Jones, MLS (AMT)

Executive Director, Kathy Cilia, MBA, CAE, MLS (AMT), Executive Director

Immediate Past President, Harry Narine, MLS (AMT), RPT (AMT)

In addition to the Executive Committee Members, we are thrilled to introduce the 2026-2027 Board of Directors:

Judiciary Councillor, Steve Stockford, MLS (AMT)

Executive Councillor, Katrina Fryar, MLS (AMT)

Member-at-Large, Dustin Martinez, MLS (AMT)

Member-at-Large, William Donald III, MLT (AMT)

Member-at-Large, Lisa Bromley-Goforth, RMA (AMT)

Member-at-Large, Tabitha Jordan, RMA (AMT)

Public Member, Jacqueline Harris

The elected Executive Committee Members and Board of Directors of AMT will collaborate with the dedicated staff and volunteers to achieve the organization's goals and mission. Under the leadership of the Board, AMT is thrilled to continue empowering its members through certification, education and support, further solidifying its role as a leading authority in allied health.

"We are ecstatic about introducing our new board members," said Executive Director, Kathy Cilia, MBA, CAE, MLS (AMT). "Their diverse experience, leadership, and collaboration will be instrumental in elevating our association and positioning us as the leader in allied health certification and advocacy.”

AMT extends its gratitude to outgoing Board members for the commitment, dedication, and contributions made during their tenures. This support is invaluable to the growth and achievements of the organization.

For more information about AMT certifications, not-for-profit mission, and educational opportunities, visit www.americanmedtech.org.

About American Medical Technologists (AMT)

www.americanmedtech.org

American Medical Technologists (AMT) is a not-for-profit credentialing agency and professional membership association uniquely recognized for providing quality certifications that advance allied health careers and uphold rigorous standards of professional competence and patient safety. Founded in 1939, AMT serves over 100,000 professionals and offers 12 certifications across the medical, dental, and laboratory fields.

As a member-led organization, AMT's mission is to promote excellence in healthcare delivery by building a stronger, more competent allied health workforce through credentialing, professional development, community, and advocacy. Educators and employers trust AMT as an independent validator of the knowledge, skills and experiences they have taught and instilled. AMT's certifications are accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA). www.americanmedtech.org

Media Contact:

Susan Rajkovich American Medical Technologists

srajkovich@americanmedtech.org